Our intensive but enjoyable 10-day long summer school will concentrate on discussing the different views of the place and role of the European Union both from internal and external perspectives. Stemming from its past and 60+-year-long history, lectures and debates will focus on analyzing the forthcoming period of the financial framework 2021-27 with a particular emphasis on the global pandemic and the post-COVID-19 era, together with how the EU can recover itself from political and economic points of view.

The course includes the following topics:

- New Global Order – What about Europe in that World?
- Central Eastern Europe and the Economic Transformation
- Migrants and Migration Policies in the EU
- Cultural Diversity in Europe
- The Role of Place Branding in a Globalized Europe and the European Capital of Culture

In the evenings, students will participate in exciting and enriching social activities including Team Building session, a Quiz Night about the European Union, an Intercultural Evening and a Treasure Hunt in Pécs.

Language of instruction: English

Who can apply: The program is open to undergraduate, graduate and PhD students

Earned credits: 4 ECTS credits

Program fee: FREE of charge for CEEPUS Scholarship holders. The CEEPUS Scholarship covers your tuition and participation in various social activities.
